LITURGY SCHEDULE

English: Friday - 8AM ✠ Sunday - 10AM

Spanish: Jueves & Sábado - 7PM ✠ Domingo - 8AM, 12PM & 5PM

"The Lord asks us to make the most of the present moment, not yearning for the past. How ugly is that nostalgia, which is like a black mood poisoning our soul and making us always look backwards, always at others, but never at our own hands or at the opportunities for work that the Lord has given us, never at our own situation... not even at our own poverty.

This brings us to the centre of the parable: the work of the servants, which is service. Service is our work too; it makes our talents bear fruit and it gives meaning to our lives. How then do we serve, as God would have us serve? The master tells the faithless servant: "You ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received what was my own with interest". Who are the "bankers" who can provide us with long-term interest? They are the poor. The poor are like Jesus himself, who, though rich, emptied himself, made himself poor. The poor guarantee us an eternal income. Even now they help us become rich in love. For the worst kind of poverty needing to be combatted is our poverty of love. Hold out your hand to the poor, instead of demanding what you lack. In this way, you will multiply the talents you have received. ~ Pope Francis

Sisters and Brothers,

As we approach the national holiday of Thanksgiving, Fr. Phil and I want to take this opportunity to thank you for your support, and for your commitment to St. Leo. Quite often we lament our losses, (and we have had many this year) but as a community, we have also been blessed. However great or small the blessings might be, this Thursday we will pause in gratitude for them all.

Fr. Phil and I are grateful for the members of the different commissions, and for the Parish and Finance Councils. We are grateful to all the ministers that make our liturgical celebrations possible, and to the dedicated volunteers that work diligently for the common good of the parish community. We are also grateful to the staff, and to Deacon Tom. They often serve without counting the cost. We are grateful to the families and individuals in the different Faith Formation programs joining us this year. You are an integral part of this faith community. Our celebration of St. Leo the Great last weekend was a real testimony that meaningful intergenerational and multicultural gatherings are possible! We are indeed grateful to each member (in person or online) of the St. Leo community.

Sometimes I stand at the entrance of the church as people are arriving for the liturgical celebration, and I see how each one of you has something to offer. It does not matter how wealthy or poor, how old or young you are, or which language you speak. You each bring something to offer, and for this we are grateful.

As a person who migrated to the country with my parents and siblings, I am extremely grateful for the opportunity to live in this nation. I am grateful for the people who welcomed us and helped us along the way as my parents were getting settled. I will never forget the experience of being a new immigrant. Soon after coming to this country, my dad passed away in a tragic accident. There are always losses and suffering in life, but today I am thankful, and I am grateful to all of you for embracing me with all my faults and shortcomings.

We have had staff members come and go. Today, I want to welcome Angelie Ashford-White, our administrative assistant, and Judith Lamprey, our bookkeeper.

We have received new information regarding Partners in the Gospel. You can find this information on the Archdiocese's webpage. After the input of many parishioners, significant changes have been recommended to the Archbishop. Twenty-five "parish families", which impact seventy-eight parishes, will be paired differently. This is a sign that the input was taken into consideration. St. Leo is among the parishes that has been reconfigured. We are now paired with St. Charles Borromeo as one family. To be clear, in the current plan, we are no longer paired with St. Patrick. Keep in mind that this is an unfolding process, and as it unfolds, and more input is provided, let's keep seeking the wisdom of the Holy Spirit. This is only a draft open for input. The updated version is still open. This is not a done deal. We need your feedback. A venue will be provided for your input. More information is to come next week.

Bishop Frank Schuster will be visiting our parish community the first Sunday of Advent. He visited Sacred Heart for Confirmation, and has been to Bellarmine Prep. I am glad that he will be joining us for the 9:30 Mass. He is very approachable, so I hope you will all feel free to personally extend a warm welcome to him when he visits us.

Happy Thanksgiving,

Fr. Elias Puentes

We

St. Leo Social Justice Page

St. Leo Social/Eco Justice Working Group

Our small group of volunteers met this past Sunday to discuss a way forward on establishing the work of advocacy. The focus will be on food: food justice and food systems sustainability.

We plan to have food justice/food systems the focus of our efforts for the next year or two. The first objective of this Working Group is to restart our advocacy efforts and focus on one or two issues that we can share with the parish family(ies).

We hope to accomplish:

- 1) Secure good information on an issue that we can share with the parish(s) via website and bulletin.
- 2) Educate parishioners on the issues.
- 3) Focus on an "Action" related to the issue(s)
- 4) Implement the action with parishioners whether it be a letter writing campaign, talking with State and/or Federal Reps, etc.
- 5) Make the work of ongoing advocacy part of the fabric of parish life!

The following will be our initial sources of information to move this effort forward:

www.northwestharvest.org; www.foodlifeline.org; www.edf.org/issue/agriculture; www.crs.org

If you are interested in helping on this social/eco justice effort, please contact Rick at: socialministry@stleoparish.org or VM/TEXT to (253) 229-4114

Security and Peace:

Throughout my entire life (I am soon to be 68 years old) the airways have always announced about Israeli/Palestinian conflicts and violence. No real solution, just more hate, misunderstanding and frustration that boils into yet another conflict.

Violence and the threat of violence must stop and there must be a way forward for a lasting and prosperous life to bloom in the Holy Land for both Palestinian and Jew. The community of nations needs to bring about a viable two-state solution to this region.

Please support the call for a two-state solution for a lasting and prosperous peace. Contact the Biden Administration in support of a Two-State approach to this conflict. Send a letter to:

Consulate General of Israel to the Pacific Northwest Region

456 Montgomery St #2100
San Francisco, CA 94104.

Inform the Consulate that they need to revive the Two-State idea for the Holy Land that can bring lasting security and prosperity to all.

St. Leo Church
Pastoral Council Meeting
October 24, 2023
Meeting Minutes:

Present: Noah Baskett, Sr. Pat Michalek, Fr. Elias Puentes S.J., Mike Bianchi, Tom Trunk, Eugena Buena-Douglas, Marcia Matthei, Emily Noelle Sanchez Ignacio, John Landy, Sarah Templin, Cyra Benedict and Vern Harkins were present.

Call to Order:

The meeting was called to order at 6:37 PM by council chair Noah Baskett. Noah began by acknowledging that we gratefully honor and acknowledge that we rest on the traditional lands of the Puyallup people where they make their home and speak the Twulshootseed language.

Opening Prayer/Faith Sharing:

Noah Baskett led a prayer and reflection based on a prayer by Timothy Radcliff prepared for the Synod.

Commission/Committee Discussion:

General discussion took place regarding the work of several commissions. The Faith Formation Commission asked for input from the Pastoral Council about the possibility of starting a lending library. The council discussion raised several issues. Questions were raised about who would oversee a library, how it would be managed and how materials made available would be vetted. The parish staff does not have the time to oversee a library project. Further discussion of the issues raised by this potential project is needed.

The Council discussed the fundraiser for support of the Food Connection that is scheduled for October 26. This is the major annual fundraiser to support their work. It has not been held for the past few years because of Covid but is now back on the calendar. All council members were encouraged to attend.

The Pastoral Care Commission has renewed its request for an update of the parish database. This is a need that exists for the parish as well as for the work of several commissions. Staffing issue shortages have interfered with the parish's ability to complete this task. Open staff positions are in the process of being filled that should allow this important project to be completed.

The Finance Council reported on the progress being made towards increasing online giving as the major method of providing weekly financial support of the parish. The parish has changed to Push Pay as their online giving portal. Push Pay is replacing Vanco for online donations. An effort is underway to convince as many parishioners as possible to make their parish donations using Push Pay. Online donations provide significant benefits to the parish by saving parish staff hours of time performing the accounting functions and banking transactions needed to deal with donations made through collections at Mass. Through these efforts the number of online donations has been increasing and efforts will be made by staff to assist parishioners in understanding the benefits of this method of contributing and to assist in those in need of help in converting to the online system.

The Stewardship Commission reported a successful welcoming dinner for new parishioners. Approximately 70 people attended.

While the Social Justice Commission is currently inactive, a report was provided regarding the planning and ongoing work that Rick Samyn and others are currently involved with regarding social ministry current and future projects.

Pastor's Report:

Father Elias reported on several items. Regarding Partners in the Gospel, he said the initial parish family pairing of St. Pat's and St. Leo announced in September, does not become final until January when the archdiocesan final report is made. Initial plans could change throughout the entire diocese regarding plans for parish pairing, as discussion of the initial plan announced in September takes place. All parishes will have to wait for the final report.

Father Elias talked about parish staffing updates. Their search for an accountant has identified a qualified individual who could soon be hired to work in-house, providing services for both the parish and for the Food Connection. Several people have applied for a separate office administrator position and there are also applicants for Pat Keely's successor. He is hopeful that some decisions will be made soon to fill these positions.

Father Elias also discussed the need for the development of clear guidelines for use of the Bix or other parish facilities by parish members. He is asking parish staff to develop a checklist to ensure that procedures, requirements, and responsibilities are clearly understood and followed for use of the Bix by any parish group asking to use it.

At the end of the meeting, Noah announced that he and his family will be moving to Salt Lake City, where he and his wife are both from. He has a great job opportunity there and they are also excited about moving back home. He said he is leaving St. Leo with a heavy heart. He will be missed as a generous and valued member of the St. Leo parish family.

Closing Prayer: Emily Noelle Sanchez Ignacio led the Council in prayer to close the meeting.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:15 PM.

Next Meeting: November 28, 2023 at 6:30 PM
