LITURGY SCHEDULE

English: Friday - 8AM ✠ Sunday - 10AM

Spanish: Jueves & Sábado - 7PM ✠ Domingo - 8AM, 12PM & 5PM

"During these days of Advent in many town squares, Christmas trees are being erected and Nativity scenes are being set up. Even in many homes these two Christmas signs are prepared, for the joy of children ... and even adults! They are signs of hope, especially in these difficult times."

"Let us not stop at the sign, but go to the meaning, that is, to Jesus, to the love of God that he has revealed to us, to go to the infinite goodness that he has made shine on the world..."

... there is no crisis, that can extinguish this light. Let us allow it to enter our hearts, and let us lend a hand to those who need it most. In this way God will be born anew in us and among us."

~ Pope Francis

Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe 2023

Like all invasions and wars, the conquest of Mexico by the Spaniards in 1519 was violent and devastating for the Natives, and for the earth. In truth, it was devastating for everyone. There was agony, despair, and death in Tenochtitlan (Mexico City).

These two cultures had one thing in common, human sacrifice. The Spaniards were appalled that the Aztecs offered human sacrifice to the gods, and the Natives were horrified at how little respect the Spaniards had for life.

The apparition of our Lady of Guadalupe took place at Tepeyac Hill during a time of warfare. She appeared while it was still night, speaking tenderly (in Nahuatl) to Juan Diego, the colonized and conquered. In Nahuatl mythology, as well as in Jewish scripture, the creation of the world began while it was still dark.

Guadalupe addressed Juan Diego, tenderly referring to him as: “my dearest child.” She recognized Juan Diego’s dignity and worthiness. Our Lady of Guadalupe revived the hope and the faith of the indigenous. After all, they realized that their gods had not abandoned them. In Guadalupe of Tepeyac, they found strength, courage, and liberation.

Like John the Baptist in our Gospel reading this weekend, Our Lady of Guadalupe comes from the periphery, from the edge, appearing to a marginalized person, to someone from the periphery.

Guadalupe appears as a uniting element because she embodies masculine and feminine characteristics that are both Christian and Nahuatl, like the sun, moon, the stars, and other symbols. These symbols signify the birthing of a new life and a new beginning.

Guadalupe also appears as a mestiza (as mixed) symbolizing the encounter between the Spaniards and the Natives. She embodies two different cultures. In Guadalupe, I find the reconciliation of opposites.

The story of Guadalupe is not the miraculous story of an apparition. It is the story of a true encounter that brings about liberation, reconciliation, and a new creation. We need Our Lady of Guadalupe very much in our lives. Many dismiss the story as merely a “Mexican” tradition.

While it has deep roots in Mexico, the story of Guadalupe is very relevant to us today. She comes to us from the periphery proclaiming another way of life: One that does not include human sacrifice, racial hatred, and violence. The Altar to Our Lady of Guadalupe that you see is a symbol of hope, peace, unity, and of new life. A symbol of Advent indeed!

I hope that the story of Our Lady of Guadalupe takes deeper roots in the human consciousness.

Que Viva Nuestra Madre Guadalupe,

Fr. Elias Puentes

Advent and Christmas at St Leo

The season of Advent is a season both of what is and what will be, a season of longing and hope, and a season of joyful anticipation. Please join us as we prepare for Christ's coming into our world!

Second Sunday of Advent (12/9, 12/10): As a parish, we will be celebrating Our Lady of Guadalupe on Sunday, December 10, with a celebration afterwards in the Bix.

On Tuesday, December 12, we will have our Advent Communal Reconciliation Service at 7:00 in the Church. This is an evening of music, prayer, and scripture with the opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

The following evening, Wednesday, December 13, Simbang Gabi will be celebrated at Mass at 6:00 with a reception to follow in the Bix. All are welcome.

Social/Ecological Justice: On the Move in 24'

IPJC: With a focus on food justice and food production sustainability we have opened discussions with the Interfaith Peace and Justice Center (IPJC) and deepening out collaborative ties with Bellarmine Prep on matters of Justice and Youth Leadership. Beginning in January/February we will be inviting members of IPJC Staff to help us listen to each other, build relationships as we create a faith-based community organizing framework to effectively address the food justice issues that effects our communities and our planet.

Bellarmino Student: we have opened conversations with Bellarmine students and staff to look into the idea of having the students share with the parish their work in social justice and to give voice to their concerns as they relate to the issues of Justice and Care for Creation. We hope to have these sharing sessions in the next couple of months heading up to the Social Justice Summit that will take place at Seattle University February 22-24, 2024.
