Fr. Michael Radermacher, Pastor

Fr. Marc Powell, Parochial Vicar

"The radical change Jesus brought about commits his disciples of both yesterday and today to a personal and community [self] examination. Indeed, even in our day it can happen that we harbour some prejudices that prevent us from seeing reality. But, today, the Lord asks us to adopt an attitude of humble listening and docile expectation because God's grace often manifests itself in surprising ways that do not match our expectations. Together, let us think about Mother Teresa of Calcutta, for example. A tiny sister — no one took her very seriously — who went around the streets to gather up the dying so that they could have a dignified death. With prayer and her work, this tiny sister performed wonders! A small woman revolutionized charity work in the Church. She sets an example for our times. God does not conform to human prejudices. We must make an effort to open our heart and mind to welcome the divine reality which comes to encounter us." ~ Pope Francis - 2018

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Peace be with you!

Today marks a milestone in the history of the Archdiocese of Seattle as we begin the implementation phase of our Partners in the Gospel strategic pastoral planning effort. This effort was designed to reorganize the structure of our parishes so that we can make more effective use of our resources — the people, the infrastructure, the finances, and more — to better achieve our Catholic mission. Imagine a Catholic Church that is thriving, welcoming young people, reaching out to those on the margins, caring for our environment and coming together as God's people for faith-filled worship centered on the celebration of the Eucharist. That is the vision of our local Church.

I've traveled around the Archdiocese of Seattle these past five years, and many people ask about the mission of the Church, which is truly at the heart of this effort. As Catholics, our mission is to help people encounter Jesus Christ, to accompany others on this journey of faith and to witness the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Giving priority to Christ, growing in intimacy and association with Christ, we become his disciples. In baptism, Christ shares his life and mission with us. The end goal of Partners in the Gospel is to live our faith and continue Christ's mission in the world. This is why the Catholic Church exists around the world and why we have embarked on Partners in the Gospel here in Western Washington.

As Pope Francis said, we must recognize the signs of the times and adjust. We no longer live in a time when people walk to Mass. We no longer live in a time when the local parish is the hub of all community gatherings. Seminaries are no longer bursting at the seams producing large ordination classes each year. While we have many thriving parishes and highly engaged communities, we've also seen a slow decline in all aspects of parish life, including many of our youth falling away from the practice of faith and families are not attending Mass like they once did.

As I've mentioned before, the status quo is not going to set the world on fire with the love of Jesus Christ. We need to be brave. We need to be bold. We need to take action — but not on our own. Everything we do has to be rooted in the Lord Jesus, guided by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, and in fulfillment of the Father's will.

We've focused on Partners in the Gospel planning for two years, with the past year and a half in consultation with you. Your participation was crucial to this effort, and again I thank you for your sincere insights and thoughtful advice. Because of your feedback, and the feedback of many throughout the archdiocese, we made many adjustments to the parish families. The parish families that are starting today reflect that feedback, which I believe put us on the best path forward — a path that was forged by consultation, prayer and discernment.

And, we must continue to listen. Listening these days is very challenging as we are bombarded with information, caught in a tug-of-war for our attention and swept up in the whirlwind of day-to-day life. Despite this, we must make time to prayerfully listen to each other, and together, to where the Holy Spirit is calling us. We must make time for silence, reflecting upon the Word of God. Developing our own personal relationship with Jesus Christ is a cornerstone of this effort. Without a lively and ongoing personal relationship with him, how can we lead others to him?

Listening also involves expanding the number of people involved in parish life and decision-making processes. We are living in the age of the laity. This is the time to recognize the many gifts of the Holy Spirit present in each member of the Church and to call forth and empower each member to use those gifts for building up the Body of Christ, the Church.

The life of the Church is to always reflect the paschal mystery of Jesus Christ. Like the death and resurrection of our Lord, Partners in the Gospel, and our new parish families, represent a dying and rising that can bring great hope for a better future as we root ourselves ever more fully in the life of the Risen Lord.

Brothers and sisters, it is a privilege to be embarking with you this new chapter in the Archdiocese of Seattle. This chapter is full of hope and the possibility of great creativity. It will be a time for navigating new beginnings and for welcoming our brothers and sisters into a new way of being Church. There is no "my parish and your parish," but instead "our parish family." This is a time for us to embrace our call to co-responsibility and to care for the Church we love. Together we can take real action and build our future as the Catholic Church here in Western Washington.

Thank you for participating in this historic, mission-focused effort of Partners in the Gospel. Please continue to pray that the seeds we plant today grow into a strong faith-filled future for the people of God in the Archdiocese of Seattle. Please be assured of my continued prayers for you, and I ask you to please pray for me. As always, I remain,

In the heart of Christ,

Dear friends,

We want to let you know that Bruce's obituary is now available to view online at <https://www.neptunesociety.com/obituaries/tacoma-wa/bruce-foreman-11867703>.

We also want to thank you for all the kind words, hugs, cards and many other expressions of love and support that you have sent our way.

We are planning to have a celebration of life later this summer or early fall, but no date has been set yet. The obituary page will be updated once we have more information.

Dear St. Leo Parishioners,

Have you ever felt your heart transformed every time you attend the Holy Mass and partake in the Body and Blood of Christ? For us Catholics, the Eucharist is not just a ritual; it is a profound encounter with Jesus Christ Himself. Each time we receive the Eucharist, we are united with Christ in a deeply intimate way, experiencing His real presence and the transformative grace that nourishes our souls and strengthens our faith. This transformative power of the Eucharist is at the heart of the Eucharistic Revival initiative, which aims to renew our devotion and deepen our understanding of its vital role in our lives and in the Mass.

The National Eucharistic Revival in the United States began in June 2022. It's a grassroots movement focused on the celebration of the Eucharist, with events taking place in dioceses and parishes across the country. The revival will culminate with a National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis in the coming weeks. During this time, Catholics are invited to deepen their devotion to the Eucharist and experience spiritual renewal through adoration and prayer. More information about the revival can be found on the Eucharistic Revival website.

Archbishop Etienne wrote a pastoral letter titled The Work of Redemption in June 2020, which highlights the importance of the Eucharist to Catholics in the Holy Mass. In his letter, Archbishop Etienne emphasizes that "the Eucharist is central to our life as Church and as individual Christian believers. In a very real way, we cannot live without it." He invites us all to a renewed focus on the heart of our faith and the center of our parish life: the Eucharist. In the coming weeks, you will notice excerpts referencing this document in our bulletin, emphasizing how we as Catholics are fed and nurtured through the Eucharist.

Since not all of us can travel to the National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis, our Seattle Archdiocese is inviting all St. Leo Parishioners to a local Eucharistic Congress at St. Charles Borromeo on July 20th, starting at 11 a.m. This event is geared toward youth and young adults, but all ages are welcome and encouraged to attend. During this congress, you will experience adoration, praise and worship, a Eucharistic procession, Mass, and lunch together. It is a wonderful opportunity to deepen your faith and experience the beauty of the Eucharist in a communal setting.

Please let me, Adriana Julian, know if you would like to attend, or you can find out more and register at Local Eucharistic Congress Registration. You can also contact me directly at faithformation@stleoparish.org or call 253-272-5136 ext. 106.

We look forward to seeing you there and sharing this special time of revival and devotion.

In Christ,

Adriana Julian
Pastoral Associate for Parish Involvement

With your eyes, Kateri

Kateri, if you were among us, what would your eyes see?

People living side by side:

Native Peoples, settlers, immigrants, refugees...

We are all neighbors, and we walk this earth with hesitation,
like you when you lost your sight.

Let us see and tell our stories with new clarity.

Kateri, if you marched among us, what would your ears hear?

Yearnings, dismay and voices asserting themselves, to claim the place of First Nations, Métis and Inuit peoples who have long suffered because of colonialism, racism and resistance to change.
Let us hear the thirst for justice and commit ourselves to achieving it.

Kateri, if you walked among us, what scents would tickle your nose?

The sweetgrass, the crisp autumn leaves, the damp earth in springtime, the fire that crackles and brings family together...

We are all responsible for safeguarding our common home, Creation and its creatures.
Let us listen to the wisdom of your Peoples, who are guardians of the lands and the waters.

Kateri, if you lived among us, what would you touch with your outstretched hands?

The wrinkles of a wise elder, the soft skin of children full of promise, the frail hand of a sick person...

We are all connected: one body, one humanity.

Let us reach out to those who need consoling.

Kateri, if you prayed among us, what would you offer to our God?

Broken hearts, sickness, despair and conflict...

We are all called to build the kingdom of justice and peace that Jesus Christ proclaimed.
Let us be the salt of the earth that gives a taste of salvation to our world.

Kateri, we pray that all our senses may lead us, like you, on the path of holiness, to ensure that all God's children be clothed in dignity.

Amen.

Prayer composed by Sabrina Di Matteo. Originally published in French for Vie liturgique magazine and Mission chez nous, a Quebec-based organization dedicated to Christian solidarity with Indigenous Peoples.

O Saint Kateri, Lily of the Mohawks,
Your love for Jesus,
so strong, so steadfast
pray that we may become like you.
Your short and painful life
showed us your strength and humility.
Pray that we may become forever humble like you.
Like the bright and shining stars at night,
we pray that your light
may forever shine down upon us,
giving light, hope, peacefulness,
and serenity in our darkest moments.
Fill our hearts, Saint Kateri Tekakwitha with your same love for Jesus and pray that we have the strength and courage to become one like you in Heaven.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray: Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be
