CATHOLIC PARISH

LITURGY SCHEDULE

Saturday - 5 PM

Sunday - 8 AM, 10 AM, 12 PM

Monday - Friday - 9 AM

"Pay heed! With these words, Jesus wants to caution us too, today, against the belief that outward observance of the law is enough to make us good Christians. Literal observance of the precepts is a fruitless exercise which does not change the heart and turn into practical behaviour: opening oneself to meet God and his Word in prayer, seeking justice and peace, taking care of the poor, the weak, the downtrodden. We all know, in our communities, in our parishes, in our neighbourhoods, how much harm and scandal is done to the Church by those people who say they are deeply Catholic and often go to Church, but who then neglect their family in daily life, speak badly of others and so on. This is what Jesus condemns because this is a counter-witness to Christianity." ~Pope Francis - 2015

We
for

Sick: Marianne Reed, Chris Cotton, Madison Meadows, Tricia Ramos, Corazon Sanchez-Ignacio, Esther Hill, Marian Girard, Erika Agosto, Carlo Coppola III, Dick Brennan and Hermine Soler..

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

If your loved one is facing surgery or has a chronic health condition, they can receive the sacramental Anointing of the Sick after any mass. Just notify the priest of this need either before or after mass.

The Pastoral Care Commission is exploring ways to be supportive to parishioners that are care givers for family members or friends. Initially, we need to determine if there is interest in adding this program to our Commission's work in the fall. If you or someone you know would be interested, please contact Laurie Dooley at 253-232-3793 or email: laurie.dooley@comcast.net

Mass of the Holy Spirit

SEPTEMBER 7 - 5 PM

SEPTEMBER 8 - 10 AM

We will be celebrating our Mass of the Holy Spirit, a decades-old tradition here at St. Leo, the weekend of September 7 and 8.

This annual event is a home-coming of sorts, a time when we gather and reaffirm that which we aspire to be as a community. For some of you, St. Leo has been home for decades while others may have only recently found your way here. This spiritual home isn't all that different from our own home...it is hopefully a place where we welcome and are welcomed, a place where important stories are told and retold, a place where we break bread together and are fed, a place where gifts are shared and work is done, and a place, frankly, that can be a bit messy at times! It is the place where we are nourished and strengthened by our celebration of the Sacraments.

We call upon the Spirit to help us in the year to come to grow ever closer into who we say we are: a Catholic community centered in the Eucharist, enriched by diversity, committed to Gospel values, and continually seeking to be Christ's servant presence in the world.

Come join us for the Mass of the Holy Spirit, reenter our sanctuary with confidence that the Spirit is in our midst, and see where the Spirit might lead you as you consider signing up for one of the many ministries of St. Leo at the Ministry Fair. Oh, yes...and WEAR RED!!!

Supportive Social Services

Clothing Boutique: Our Clothing Boutique continues to serve scores of those in need daily. We often run short of the same items regularly. To try to address this reality we are calling on parishioners to focus on a particular monthly clothing item to donate to this ministry. Moreover, we encourage parishioners to be creative, especially those who have children in school or are still in the work force! My question to you is this: Are we able to promote targeted clothing drives at schools or places of work to help with the shortages we experience at the boutique?

We are asking for these donations for the next few months:

SEPTEMBER: Men's Jeans - Size 30, 32, 34 & 36 only

OCTOBER: Sleeping bags and blankets

NOVEMBER: Winter coats, hats, & gloves

DECEMBER: Men's jeans, winter coats

JANUARY: Sleeping bags, blankets

A BIG THANK YOU to all of you who have supported this parish ministry throughout the years and continue to do so with Joy and the Love of Christ!

If you have any questions regarding this parish ministry, please contact Rick Samyn at: VM/TEXT 253 229-4114 or email: socialministry@stleoparish.org.

Advocacy Efforts for Food Justices and Sustainability in Food Production

The Intercommunity Peace and Justice Center (IPJC) has NOT been idle over the summer months! IPJC Staff and Parishioners continue to meet, form strong relationships and establish the foundation for sustainable advocacy work for years to come, supporting justice work of Food Security and Care for Creation!

Over the next few weeks, I will be meeting with IPJC Staff and parishioners on this work, as well as with members of Harvest Pierce County. Advocacy for justice WILL REMAIN an important expression of the life of this parish!
