"Jesus does not delegate someone from the "large crowd" following him, but goes personally to meet Bartimaeus. He asks him, "What do you want me to do for you?" What do you want... – Jesus is completely taken up with Bartimaeus. That is how God operates. He gets personally involved with preferential love for every person. By his actions, he already communicates his message. Faith thus flowers in life.

Faith passes through life. When faith is concerned purely with doctrinal formulae, it risks speaking only to the head without touching the heart. And when it is concerned with activity alone, it risks turning into mere moralizing and social work. Faith, instead, is life: it is living in the love of God who has changed our lives. We cannot choose between doctrine and activism. We are called to carry out God's work in God's own way: in closeness, by cleaving to him, in communion with one another, alongside our brothers and sisters. Closeness: that is the secret to communicating the heart of the faith, and not a secondary aspect." ~ Pope Francis 2018

October 27, 2024

Dear St Leo Parishioners,

May the Lord give you peace! As your pastor, I need to share with you Archbishop Etienne's firm desire that parishes across the Archdiocese of Seattle be more in line with how Eucharist is celebrated as a greater expression of unity in the Eucharist. As such, there will be a couple things that will be affected at St. Leo's.

Liturgical Posture

As explained in his 2020 pastoral letter regarding the Eucharist, "The Work of Redemption: Eucharistic Belief and Practice in the Archdiocese of Seattle," our Archbishop is eager to "express and reinforce our unity as a local Church ... and bring us into a unity of posture and practice" with the larger Church.

In that letter, the Archbishop Etienne went on to state his desire that parishes "use common postures across the archdiocese during the Liturgy of the Eucharist and the Communion Rite, in keeping with the General Instructions of the Roman Missal and widespread practice in the United States." This means that we would "kneel beginning after the singing or recitation of the Sanctus until after the Amen of the Eucharistic Prayer" and that we would "kneel after the Agnus Dei until it is time to go forward in the Communion procession. Kneeling is a form of adoration." It should be noted that parishioners who are unable to kneel are invited to be seated during those times.

I recognize that this will be difficult, even painful, news for some of our parishioners who experienced after Vatican II that it is appropriate for the baptized to stand at the Liturgy of the Eucharist, since standing is a sign of respect and reverence in our culture. As a Jesuit-led parish for so many years, St. Leo's has enjoyed some latitude in liturgical postures. To let go of the posture of standing in respectful attention may feel to some like slipping back into pre-Vatican II times and may stir up painful memories. From the Archbishop's perspective, it is intended to be a physical expression of the unity of the worshipping community.

Sacred Vessels

Liturgical guidelines published in the US Bishops' "General Instructions of the Roman Missal" state that sacred vessels used at Eucharistic celebrations should be made of precious metals. In accordance with this policy, the presider's chalice and Communion cups should be made of silver or gold. While we do have an appropriate chalice on hand, our pewter Communion cups will be replaced. Our crafted wooden Communion bowl, while beautiful in itself, will also be replaced with a vessel that meets the guidelines.

I am aware that these changes will be difficult for some of our parishioners. I urge you to remember, however, that these changes are external. While they may symbolize internal perspectives, they need not cause us to forget that what is essential to us as Catholics is our belief in the real presence of Christ in Eucharist and our belonging as members of his Mystical Body. May our faith and our commitment to one another remain strong as we persevere through the struggle of accepting change!

Timeline

While parishes were instructed to implement the changes in years past, we, at St. Leo's, will initiate the change of liturgical practices on the First Sunday of Advent, December 1, 2024. If you are having difficulty processing this news, I encourage you to reach out to one of the following parish leaders. They will listen to you with understanding and will do whatever they can to support you during this time.

Deacon Tom O'Loughlin (tomoloughlin@stleoparish.org)

Adriana Julian, Director of Pastoral Ministries (pastoralministries@stleoparish.org)

Sister Pat Michalek, Parish Council Chairperson (pmichalekosf@aol.com)

Sarah Templin, Parish Council Vice-Chairperson (sarah.m.templin@gmail.com)

Let us pray for one another as we continue to build a parish family whose faith makes the light of the Gospel shine brightly in our corner of Tacoma!

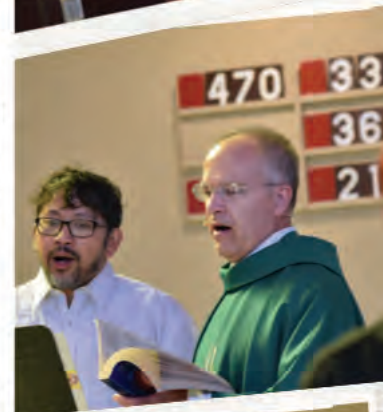

Fr. Michael

We were blessed to celebrate Fr. Michael's Installation Mass at St. Charles on October 20th, and what a joyous occasion it was! The liturgy was a beautiful expression of our faith, with many of our St. Leo parishioners joining in prayer and worship. Fr. Michael signed his Oath of Fidelity, pledging to maintain unity with the Catholic Church, uphold its teachings and laws, and faithfully serve the St. Charles and St. Leo communities.

Following the Mass, we gathered for a wonderful potluck, sharing fellowship and the many blessings of community. We are truly grateful to everyone who prepared and brought such a diverse array of food, reflecting the richness of our parish family. It was a true feast of faith, food, and friendship as we celebrated our pastor, Fr. Michael.

May we continue to grow together in Christ, united in His love and service!

OATH OF FIDELITY

I, Reverend Michael Radermacher, in assuming the office of Pastor, of the Parish Family of: St. Leo the Great and St. Charles Borromeo, promise that in my words and in my actions I shall always preserve communion with the Catholic Church.

With great care and fidelity I shall carry out the duties incumbent on me toward the Church, both universal and particular, in which, according to the provisions of the law, I have been called to exercise my service.

In fulfilling the charge entrusted to me in the name of the Church, I shall hold fast to the deposit of faith in its entirety; I shall faithfully hand it on and explain it, and I shall avoid any teachings contrary to it.

I shall follow and foster the common discipline of the entire Church and I shall maintain the observance of all ecclesiastical laws, especially those contained in the Code of Canon Law.

With Christian obedience I shall follow what the Bishops, as authentic doctors and teachers of the faith, declare, or what they, as those who govern the Church, establish. I shall also faithfully assist the diocesan Bishops, so that the apostolic activity, exercised in the name and by mandate of the Church, may be carried out in communion with the Church.

So help me God, and God's Holy Gospels on which I place my hand.

Signed: Rev Michael Radermacher

Thanks again to the volunteers and all of you who donated ingredients for the meal.

Our History of Social Justice: A Rich History of Faith in Action – The Story Continues

Throughout the history of our parish, we have responded to the signs of the times with open minds, hearts and hands. Change and challenges have always been more of an opportunity to grow deeper in our faith and more creative in our actions—being Good News to our Sisters and Brothers & all of Creation!

Our story continues leaving off in the 70's and 80's:

- 1979 Guadalupe House with the Catholic Worker and G-Street Community began to form. Nativity House opens on Market Street – A drop-in center for those in need
- 1980 the Catholic Community Service's – Hospitality Kitchen opens, serving hot meals to all who are hungry
- 2008 – Our Emergency Services program begins expanding its services with increased financial support and community grants
- 2008 – Food Connection's Children's Feeding Program starts at Carver Elementary with 50 children in the program. In 2024 the program now serves 1,700 children at 42 schools!
- 2009 – St. Leo Parish & Food Connection work to start up The L'Honey Project promoting our connection to the natural world and where our food comes from!
- 2010's – The parish strives to be more open to LGBTQ community
- 2021 St. Leo Continues to expand Social Supportive Services (E-Services) with a Clothing Boutique that was developed by parishioner Betsy Tustison
(Historical recollections are by: Bill Orrange, Dawn Whitman & Rick Samyn)

THE PRESENT: There are efforts afoot to revive our work of Advocacy in the area of food justice and sustainability as well as other important social justice issues. We continue to grow as a parish and to be a force for good! St. Leo Parish will continue to undergo changes as that is a fact of life. However, it is in our hands as to how WE express the fundamental values of the Gospel and Catholic Social Teachings.

If you have stories about the rich history of Social Service/Social Justice Ministries here at St. Leo's Please contact Rick Samyn- 253 229-4114/socialministry@stleoparish.org. We will be highlighting this history through October and November.

If you are caring for a loved one, feel isolated and “burned out” perhaps you would enjoy the opportunity to share your experience with others.
