LITURGY SCHEDULE

Sunday - 8 AM, 10 AM, 12:30 PM

Monday - Friday - 9 AM

"Today, too, there are many settings in which Jesus, although appreciated as a man, is reduced to a kind of charismatic leader or superman. This is true not only among non-believers but also among many baptized Christians, who thus end up living, at this level, in a state of practical atheism.

This is the world that has been entrusted to us, a world in which, as Pope Francis taught us so many times, we are called to bear witness to our joyful faith in Jesus the Saviour. Therefore, it is essential that we too repeat, with Peter: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God" ~Pope Leo

pray
for

Sick:

Deceased: Luvonica Cecil Aldan, Janelle Patchico, Mary Reitz, Pat Fengler.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

If your loved one is facing surgery or has a chronic health condition, they can receive the sacramental Anointing of the Sick after any mass. Just notify the priest of this need either before or after mass.

FAITH IN CONVERSATION, with Fr. Marc

You're invited to a series of informal, monthly ZOOM conversations about how we live out our Catholic identity in everyday life. Each ZOOM conversation will be about a different topic and held the first Sunday of every month from 6:30PM-8PM via ZOOM, but the first gathering is TBD.

Please sign up for convos on forms in the vestibule before and after weekend masses starting this weekend, May 17th and 18th. On the forms, please leave Fr. Marc your legibly written name and email address.

More detailed info will be posted in the bulletins and on websites in a couple weeks, so stay tuned.

Topic 1: What's (my) main image for God?

Questions the convo might explore about the topic:

Where does my image come from and what chief emotion arises with my response?

How has my image, perhaps in previously unknown ways, shaped how I interact with others, especially on matters of faith, spirituality and religion? Give a brief example if you can.

Given my image, what does it mean for me to say that I am made in my "image" of God?

What is one thing I notice about other participants' images for God? What is one thing that surprises me about the various images shared? What is one thing I want to remember about this conversation on images for God and how we live them out, and why?

Social Services/Justice – Parish Ministries

“Whatever you do to the least of my Sisters and Brothers you do for me.”

We live in a world of great possibilities, but sadly, it suffers from the sins of greed, apathy and indifference. Indifferent to the suffering of others and the wounds inflicted on the planet. An apathy that says, “Who cares, it doesn’t affect me or mine.” A greed that disfigures the planet and human souls, inflicting pain on all.

Yet our faith in the incarnate God, Jesus Christ teaches us that all life is sacred. As a parish family we are called to bring the Good News of the Gospel to all of God’s creature – big and small. As Pope Francis said, “The church is like a field hospital... heal the wounds.”

As a field hospital we need to work together to bring about the much-needed healing and hope to all of God’s Creation. This is the time to strengthen the tent poles and stretch the canvas of this field hospital for Christ, God Incarnate!

The following is a list, incomplete as it is, of our ministries. Together we can expand them, add to them and be that needed hope and healing to our wounded world.

St. Leo Food Connection: Food Bank/Food Distribution: St. Leo Food Connection provides thousands of meals every month to hungry families and individual who struggle to meet their daily needs. The Food Connection operates a children’s feeding program which works to address hunger needs in classrooms across school districts in our area.

St. Charles Borromeo: Operates a food pantry that addresses the growing food insecurity issues within their parish boundaries. St. Charles also supports the work of the St. Leo Clothing Boutique, clothing for the homeless. At St. Charles, I am sure that there are other social service/justice ministries to be added to the list. Let’s make them known -Let’s make them grow.
How do we strengthen our tent poles & stretch the canvass?

St. Leo Clothing Boutique: Provides needed clothing on a weekly basis to our sisters and brothers who live on the streets or in vehicles. We also provide personal hygiene products with dignity and love.

St. Leo Laundry Ministry: a new ministry, provides laundry service to those who are unhoused or without the means to keep their clothes washed.

St. Leo/Food Conn “In the Line Hospitality”: On a regular basis, parishioners offer hot coffee/milk chocolate and fresh cookies to those waiting in line to enter the food bank. It’s a great way to show some kindness to others, share stories and to get to know our neighbors!

St. Leo Supportive Services Program (E-Services): Gives limited financial assistance to those who struggle to make ends meet, to hold on to housing or to secure it; financial support to help with job searches or job retention. We provide assistance in securing personal identification documentation, advocacy and social services referral assistance.

The L'Honey Beekeeping Program & Youth Garden: Operates six apiaries and manages about 40 or so hives. We have a small youth garden that parish youth help set up and plant in the spring. Through these efforts, we produce and sell hive products, pickled beets, beet relish and blackberry jam, in support of the honeybees and youth garden. These efforts help youth, all members of the parish, and the broader community better connect with God's Creation. You cannot love and care for someone or Creation if you have no relationship! We are called to be in loving relationship with each other and with Creation. We partner with Bellarmine High School, St. Patrick Elementary and Franklin Pierce School Farm. Care for Creation is a priority for life and a fundamental spiritual exercise, helping us grow closer to God.

In this season of new life & hope, I ask you to support the work of social justice, service and Care for Creation at St. Leo's and St. Charles. We are all called to be Good News!!!

Faith Is Service - Service Is Joy

We will be having a Pax Christi meeting after Mass
Sunday, May 18 at 11:15 in the Kateri Room.

ALL ARE WELCOME. COME JOIN WITH OTHERS STRIVING FOR PEACE.

PAX CHRISTI

The April 29, 2025 Partners in the Gospel meeting was led by Leigh Stringfellow who is contracted by the Archdiocese of Seattle to conduct such meetings. Jason Stolberg, our Parish Liaison was present to help facilitate her presentation. Slides from the presentation will be posted here.

(<https://stleoparish.org/wp-content/uploads/2025/05/April-29-meeting-slides.pdf>)

Participants were given the chance to introduce themselves and share how long they have been in their parishes. They were also given the chance to comment on 3 questions:

1. What questions do you have about moving forward as one parish family?
2. what are you most concerned about?
3. What are you most hopeful and excited about?

Comment cards will be posted here. (<https://stleoparish.org/wp-content/uploads/2025/05/April-29comments-docs.pdf>)

Some of the Key topics discussed in the meeting were “types of decision making”, “who is on the PFLT” and “how the PFAC will be formed.”

There are 3 types of Decision Making that will take place in the process of becoming one parish are:

- Participant Leadership
- Consultative Leadership
- Authoritative Leadership

Fr. Michael will use all 3 types to move the parish forward.

The Parish Family Leadership Team (PFLT) includes our Pastor: Fr. Michael Rademacher, Director of Operations: Shanon Koenen, Director of Pastoral Ministries: Adriana Julian, and Partners in the Gospel contact person: Marianne Manning.

The Parish Family Advisory Council (PFAC) will consist of 7 people that Fr. Michael will discern as a good fit. He hopes to assemble this group by the end of the summer to begin regularly scheduled meetings. Fr. Michael is looking for people that are:

1. Peaceful, 2. Prayerful, 3. Familiar with both campuses, 4. Does not have an agenda and wants the family as a whole to move forward, and 5. Able to commit to the timeline the process will require.

If parishioners know of anyone who fit these criteria and would like to suggest Fr. Michael consider them, please send their name to Marianne at mmanning@stleoparish.org

Tough Questions on Immigration

What don't the bishops understand about "illegal"?

The U.S. bishops and the teachings of the Catholic Church have consistently respected the right of sovereign governments to control its borders—it functions as one of the principles in their pastoral letter *Strangers No Longer: Together on the Journey of Hope*. However, the Church, along with other members of our democratic society, has the right to work to change laws which are believed to violate basic human dignity, imbued by the Creator. In the case of immigration, the U.S. bishops believe that the broken U.S. immigration system separates families, denies due process and contributes to the exploitation of migrant workers in the workplace.<sup>1</sup>

Why do immigrants come here illegally?

One of the primary reasons certain immigrants do not come to the United States through lawful mechanisms is because of the many systemic barriers that prevent them from coming through a legal process. They come illegally because there are insufficient visas under the current system to come legally. Immigrants come illegally because there is an enormous backlog that prevents them from reunifying with family members currently living in the United States in a timely fashion. Some family members might have to wait for more than a decade before their visa is processed and for family reunification can occur.<sup>2</sup> Some immigrants arrive at our borders as they are fleeing persecution and seeking protection and cannot safely live in their home countries. Most recently we have seen this in the case of the Northern Triangle countries of El Salvador, Honduras, and Guatemala. Our system contains a limited number of permanent visas for low-wage laborers to come to the United States, but the demand for their work within the US is much higher, and as many as 300,000 undocumented people each year are absorbed into the U.S. workforce.

Do immigrants increase the crime rate?

One of the dominant myths that distorts any debate on immigration is the idea that immigrants are criminals and commit crimes at higher rates than native born citizens. This is a false assumption. Recently published research<sup>3</sup> has shown that immigrant communities do not increase the crime rate and that immigrants actually commit fewer crimes than native born Americans. Although the number of unauthorized immigrants living in the United States tripled from 3.5 million to 11 million between 1990 and 2013, the corresponding violent crime rate declined by 48%. This was matched by a 41% reduction in property crime over the same period. Further, immigrants are less likely to be in prison and less likely to engage in criminal behavior. For example, while only about 1.6% of immigrant males between the age of 17-39 are incarcerated, 3.3% of native born men are in prison.

Do immigrants pay taxes?

Unauthorized immigrants pay a wide range of taxes,<sup>4</sup> including sales taxes where applicable. They also pay property taxes, directly if they own their homes and indirectly if they rent. Between one half and three quarters of undocumented immigrants pay state and federal taxes. In fact, estimates state that unauthorized migrants pay an estimated $11.64 billion every year in state and local taxes.
